Effective Dates

Supersessions

Circumstances	Effective Date
Parent with Care/Non-resident Parent report that they have reconciled	The effective date of this decision will be the date the change is reported. Note: If either party is reporting a retrospective period of reconciliation that has ended, the opportunity to report this change has been missed, as the effective date of the decision to supersede would be the date the change is reported.
Parent with Care/Non-resident Parent has died	Child maintenance ceases to be payable from the date of death.
Last Qualifying Child role has ended	The effective date is the date the change occurred.
Case applicant requests case closure	The effective date of the case closure will be the date the request is made.
Parent with Care/Non-resident Parent/Qualifying Child (ren) not habitually resident	The effective date is the date the change occurred.
Parent with Care in prison or held on remand	The effective date is the date the change occurred as that parent would no longer have day to day care of the QC.
